English — Grammar, Chapter 8 · Grade 6

The Museum After Dark

Answer 15 short questions. Write only the missing word or words, or choose one answer. Allow about 10–15 minutes.

> You are helping a tiny museum get ready for its night show. Check the signs and your team's notes.

1

8.1 — Verbs

You unlock the museum. Write the action verb.

2

The room seems quiet. What kind of verb is "seems" here?

- Action verb
- Linking verb
- Helping verb

3

You are checking the lights. Write the helping verb.

4

8.2 — Verb forms and regular verbs

Yesterday, you ___ (carry) three boxes. Use the simple past.

5

Right now, the model train is ___ (move). Write the -ing form.

6

8.3 — Irregular verbs

Yesterday, you ___ (bring) a lamp. Use the simple past.

7

Your partner has ___ (write) a label. Use the past participle.

8 Before today, you had ___ (see) this painting only in a photo. Use the past participle.

9

8.4 — Verb tense

Last night, you repaired the clock. What tense is "repaired"?

- Simple past
- Simple present
- Simple future

10 Tomorrow, you ___ (open) the doors. Use the simple future with will. Write two words.

11 Every evening, the guard ___ (check) the doors. Use the simple present.

12

8.5 — Verbals

Drawing maps takes time. What kind of verbal is "Drawing"?

- Participle
- Infinitive
- Gerund

13 The shining lamp lights the room. What kind of verbal is "shining"?

- Participle
- Gerund
- Infinitive

14 You hope to explore the secret room. What kind of verbal is "to explore"?

- Gerund
- Infinitive
- Participle

15 You are painting a sign. How is "painting" used here?

- As a noun
- As an adjective
- As part of the verb phrase

Generated from the sources listed in the quiz definition file.