English — Grammar, Chapter 8 · Grade 6

The Museum After Dark

Answer 15 short questions. Write only the missing word or words, or choose one answer. Allow about 10–15 minutes.

> You are helping a tiny museum get ready for its night show. Check the signs and your team's notes.

1

8.1 — Verbs

You unlock the museum. Write the action verb.

Answer: unlock
Unlock tells what you do.

2

The room seems quiet. What kind of verb is "seems" here?

- Action verb
- Linking verb
- Helping verb

Answer: Linking verb
Seems links the room to its description, quiet.

3

You are checking the lights. Write the helping verb.

Answer: are
Are helps the main verb, checking, form the present continuous.

4

8.2 — Verb forms and regular verbs

Yesterday, you ___ (carry) three boxes. Use the simple past.

Answer: carried
Carry becomes carried. Change the consonant + y ending to -ied.

5

Right now, the model train is ___ (move). Write the -ing form.

Answer: moving
Drop the final silent e in move before adding -ing.

6

8.3 — Irregular verbs

Yesterday, you ___ (bring) a lamp. Use the simple past.

Answer: brought
Bring is irregular. Its past form is brought, not bringed.

7

Your partner has ___ (write) a label. Use the past participle.

Answer: written
The forms are write, wrote, written. After has, use written.

8

Before today, you had ___ (see) this painting only in a photo. Use the past participle.

Answer: seen
The forms are see, saw, seen. After had, use seen.

9

8.4 — Verb tense

Last night, you repaired the clock. What tense is "repaired"?

- Simple past
- Simple present
- Simple future

Answer: Simple past
Repaired places the action in the past. Last night gives the time.

10

Tomorrow, you ___ (open) the doors. Use the simple future with will. Write two words.

Answer: will open
Will + the base form open expresses this future action.

11

Every evening, the guard ___ (check) the doors. Use the simple present.

Answer: checks
A repeated habit uses the simple present. With the singular subject the guard, add -s.

12

8.5 — Verbals

Drawing maps takes time. What kind of verbal is "Drawing"?

- Participle
- Infinitive
- Gerund

> Answer: Gerund
> Drawing names an activity. It acts as a noun and is the subject of the sentence.

13

The shining lamp lights the room. What kind of verbal is "shining"?

- Participle
- Gerund
- Infinitive

> Answer: Participle
> Shining describes the lamp. It acts as an adjective.

14

You hope to explore the secret room. What kind of verbal is "to explore"?

- Gerund
- Infinitive
- Participle

> Answer: Infinitive
> To explore combines to with a base verb. Here it tells what you hope to do.

15

You are painting a sign. How is "painting" used here?

- As a noun
- As an adjective
- As part of the verb phrase

> Answer: As part of the verb phrase
> Are painting tells what you are doing. An -ing ending alone does not make a word a gerund.

Generated from the sources listed in the quiz definition file.